WENDY SELIG-PRIEB

President and Chief Executive Officer

Wendy Selig-Prieb was named President and Chief Executive Officer of the Milwaukee Brewers on August 4, 1998, replacing her father, Allan H. (Bud) Selig, who left the position to serve as Commissioner of Major League Baseball. Selig-Prieb, who joined the club in 1990 as General Counsel, had assumed more responsibility for day-to-day operations when her father took over as Chairman of Baseball's Executive Council in September 1992.

The 2001 opening of Miller Park - a fan friendly, world class ballpark, was the culmination of a 10-year mission for Selig-Prieb and the realization of her vision of the ultimate entertainment experience.

It is that vision coupled with her commitment to providing a championship baseball team for the fans of Wisconsin that will lead the Brewers in the 21st century. In a decision critical to the club's future, Selig-Prieb selected Dean Taylor in September of 1999 to oversee the Club's baseball operations. With an experienced management team, regarded as innovators and leaders in the areas of scouting and player development, the Brewers have created a solid blueprint for the future.

Selig-Prieb, a life-long fan of the game believes in its traditions and understands the responsibility of a team to its community. Under her leadership, the Brewers have rededicated themselves to the community and enhanced their involvement, including the creation of Brewers Charities, Inc., in support of charities, activities and programs serving youth and the underprivileged throughout the State of Wisconsin.

Selig-Prieb is the only female Chief Executive Officer of a Major League Baseball club and at 42, she is the second youngest club president and CEO behind the Pittsburgh Pirates' Kevin McClatchy (39). As part of management's 12-person negotiating committee in collective bargaining sessions with the Major League Baseball Players Association, she was the first woman to represent Major League Baseball at the bargaining table (1994 and 1995). She is a member of the Task Force for The Commissioner's Initiative on Women and Baseball, and has been a driving force in efforts to bring more women and families out to the game. She has served on numerous other committees for Baseball and has represented the Brewers at Major League meetings since 1992.

A lifelong Milwaukeean, Wendy is very active in the community. She is a Director of the Child Abuse Prevention (CAP) Fund, United Way, and D.A.R.E. Wisconsin. Since 1998 she has served as the honorary chair for the March of Dimes WalkAmerica and she serves on the Governor's Glass Ceiling Commission. She is on the Board of Directors of Guaranty Bank and is a member of the Greater Milwaukee Committee and Young Presidents' Organization. Wendy is also a member of the Board of Overseers for Athletics of Tufts University.

Selig-Prieb has been honored with a variety of awards. The Marquette University National Sports Law Institute presented her with the Joseph E. O'Neill Award in 2000, which is given annually to an individual in the sports industry who has made a significant contribution to the field and done so while exemplifying the highest ethical standards. Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal ranked her among the most powerful women in sports for three consecutive years (1998-2000). Also, Milwaukee's Sixteenth Street Community Health Center honored her at their annual roast in 2000. Other past honors for Selig-Prieb include recognition in Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal inaugural "40 under 40" list in 1999. She was also a past finalist for the Women in Sports and Events (WISE) Woman of the Year award. Selig-Prieb was recognized by The Business Journal in 1992 in their "40 Under 40" profiles, which honors a group of people under the age of 40 who are making a difference in their organizations, industries, communities or professional spheres.

Selig-Prieb was born in Milwaukee on March 18, 1960. She graduated from University School in Milwaukee in 1978. She graduated magna cum laude in 1982 from Tufts University in Medford, Massachusetts, with a bachelor's degree in political science. Selig-Prieb began her baseball career in the Brewers broadcasting department in 1982 before becoming an Executive Trainee in the Baseball Commissioner's office for two years. After earning her Juris Doctor, magna cum laude, from Marquette University Law School in 1988, Selig-Prieb worked as a corporate attorney for Foley & Lardner before joining the Brewers.

Selig-Prieb is married to Laurel Prieb, the Brewers Vice President of Marketing. They have a daughter, Natalie, and reside in Fox Point, Wisconsin.

Milwaukee Brewers in theCOMMUNITY

The Community Relations Department of the Milwaukee Brewers is committed to supporting many worthy events and activities throughout the state of Wisconsin. The club is pleased to give back to dedicated fans who have supported the Brewers throughout the years. Each year, many charities, educational groups, youth groups and non-profit organizations raise hundreds of thousands of dollars through the support of players and with auction items provided by the Milwaukee Brewers.

Brewers Charities

The Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club unveiled Brewers Charities, Inc. in April 2000 as a new charitable arm to the organization. The mission of Brewers Charities, Inc. is to support charities, activities and programs which serve youths and underprivileged people in metropolitan Milwaukee and the State of Wisconsin. Brewers Charities, Inc. is raising funds to carry out its charitable purposes through a variety of fundraising initiatives including the Safe At Home Picnic, the Sausage Race and the club's Speakers Bureau. Additionally, proceeds from venues such as Autograph Alley at Miller Park will flow to Brewers Charities and a portion of those funds will be used to build a Youth field on the site of the Brewers' former home, County Stadium. Other avenues of fundraising are also being developed.

Child Abuse Prevention (CAP) Fund

Children truly are our future and they deserve a safe environment. The Child Abuse Prevention (CAP) Fund was created in 1987 to end the cycle of abuse and create healthier families in our state. The CAP Fund is the official charity of the Milwaukee Brewers and financial assistance from the club supports prevention programs, educates the public about the importance of prevention and encourages community action. During the year, the CAP Fund receives thousands of dollars in proceeds from several events held in conjunction with the Brewers including the Celebrity Bowling Tournament and the Safe At Home Picnic which features Brewers players and wives as wait staff.

Hank Aaron Chasing The Dream Foundation

The Hank Aaron Chasing The Dream Foundation provides financial assistance to underprivileged youths seeking to better themselves through education. Presentations are made annually at a special ceremony featuring Hank Aaron. Locally, funds for the foundation come from the Hank Aaron Golf Tournament held each summer in the Milwaukee area. The Chasing the Dream Foundation has had its roots in Milwaukee since the end of Aaron's playing career in 1976. It is administered from Atlanta, Aaron's current home, with proceeds targeted toward youths in Atlanta and Milwaukee.

Breaking Barriers in Sports & Life

Breaking Barriers is a character education program developed by Major League Baseball, Major League Baseball Players Association and Scholastic, Inc. It is based on the values that shaped the life of Jackie Robinson and the concept that all of us – students, teachers, parents and professional baseball players – face barriers in our lives. This program is a component of our partnership with the Milwaukee Public School District. By participating in this program, middle school-aged youngsters learn what it takes to develop good values and how that process shapes their future. We look forward to having Sharon Robinson visit Milwaukee again to meet with students here and talk more about this inspirational program.

Brewers Wives

The Milwaukee Brewers Wives have an important role in the team's community outreach efforts. Their commitment has evolved into several special charity events. Each summer, the wives host the annual tailgate party to benefit Sojourner Truth House, a shelter for battered women and children. Additionally, proceeds from the Brewers Wives' Auction support other worthwhile organizations including COA Youth and Family Centers, the CAP Fund and Walker's Point Youth and Family Center. The auction is a popular event featuring autographed items, collectibles and player appearances.

Recognition of Academic Success

Now in its 14th year, the Brewers have teamed up with the Bradley Foundation and the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel to sponsor an incentive program for area students who demonstrate academic effort and achievement. More than 20,000 students from 600 schools in eight counties in grades 7-12 are recognized with a certificate, highlighted in a special section of the newspaper and rewarded with game tickets.

Brewers Little Hitters League

The Milwaukee Brewers, Major League Baseball and the Boys & Girls Clubs of Wisconsin sponsor the Little Hitters Club, a statewide baseball league for children between the ages of six and nine. The program has grown to 2,300 children and more than two dozen Boys & Girls Clubs and receives additional support through a significant personal contribution by a Brewers player and area merchants.

Girls of Summer League

The Girls of Summer Softball League is an effort which began in 2000 to create a sports program specifically aimed at girls ages ten to twelve in the Milwaukee area. The program promotes the development of self-esteem, teamwork, sportsmanship and self-discipline for more than 230 area girls. Enthusiasm for the league was so strong that more teams were added for the 2001 season. The Milwaukee Public Schools Recreation Division and Girl Scouts of Milwaukee Area have teamed up with the Brewers to support the Girls of Summer League.

RBI League

The RBI League (Reviving Baseball in the Inner City) is an initiative of Major League Baseball, which began more than 20 years ago in Los Angeles. The Brewers have joined many other major league teams in offering this program which targets African-American teenagers ages thirteen to fifteen. Brewers' RBI teams have competed in regional competition. Milwaukee Public Schools Recreation Division is an important partner in the RBI League.

Brewers Youth Baseball Clinics

Each summer, hundreds of youngsters gather at local parks to learn the finer points of baseball. Our players and coaches donate their time to help kids develop proper techniques of hitting, pitching, fielding and base running. The instruction is invaluable with an additional emphasis on sportsmanship and goal setting.

Baseball Carnival

The Garden Homes School playground is the site for an annual fun-filled carnival for 2,500 youths from the Milwaukee Recreation Department. Players and front office personnel are on hand for fielding, hitting and pitching clinics, autograph booths, games and a picnic round out a great day of activities.

Brewers Holiday Card

Each year, students from Milwaukee-area schools assist the Milwaukee Brewers in designing an annual holiday card. A committee comprised of MPS staff and representatives of the front office judges all entries. The finalist receives a special VIP package with all student participants receiving certificates and special items.

Thanksgiving Turkey Giveaway

The Milwaukee Brewers and WMCS Radio 1290 again worked together to donate more than 300 turkeys to needy families in the Milwaukee area this Thanksgiving. Local non-profit organizations help identify families who would not be able to enjoy a turkey dinner and brighten their holiday in the process.

Winter Tour

This annual road show, sponsored by Miller Brewing, is an opportunity for players, broadcasters and front office personnel to preview the upcoming season and build fan excitement in the team. Each January, groups set out to various parts of the state to visit schools and hospitals and to hold luncheons and dinner events that benefit local community groups.

Speakers Bureau

The ballclub receives many requests for personal appearances and speaking engagements by our front office staff. Groups and organizations wishing to schedule an appearance by a representative of the ballclub should contact the Community Relations Department of the Milwaukee Brewers. All donations for speaking engagements support Brewers Charities, Inc.

Big League Blood Drive

The Milwaukee Brewers will continue to team up with the Blood Center of Southeast Wisconsin to offer a most unique site for a blood drive: the Miller Park Press Box. In 2001, the "Big League Blood Drive" drew 1,000 donors, the highest number of attendees ever for a Blood Center effort. Due to the overwhelming response from the public, the Blood Center had enough supplies to respond to the September 11th tragedy.

Miller Park
WORLD CLASS BALLPARK-WORLD CLASS CITY

April 6, 2001 will be a day that the people of Wisconsin and fans of Major League Baseball will remember for many years to come. In front of the President of the United States, the Commissioner of Baseball and many more dignitaries, the Milwaukee Brewers and Cincinnati Reds christened Miller Park in a thrilling game culminating with a game-winning home run from Richie Sexson in the bottom of the eighth inning.

President George W. Bush became the first sitting president to attend a professional sporting event in the state of Wisconsin. He, along with Baseball Commissioner, Allan H. (Bud) Selig, threw out ceremonial first balls prior to the game. This was just the first of many wonderful events that will take place in the Brewers' new home.

Miller Park drew more than 3,000,000 visitors in 2001 including 2,811,041 for Brewers baseball, shattering the all-time Milwaukee baseball record for attendance. The ballpark was a popular stop for fans outside of the Milwaukee area as well with more than 57% of the club's attendance coming from outside of the Milwaukee area. In addition, the Brewers established a group ticket sales record in 2001 with more than 619,000 group tickets sold.

President George W. Bush throwing out the first pitch in the Inaugural Game at Miller Park

Miller Park was not only the home to Brewers baseball in its inaugural season. While the team was away, the park played host to a pair of major concerts including the George Strait Country Music Festival in May and a show by the popular band N'Sync in July. Both concerts drew more than 34,000 fans each and earned rave reviews from the performers themselves.

The Racing Sausages made the move across the street adding even more excitement during the 2001 season.

That was just the beginning. The Brewers will continue to make Miller Park the home for a wide variety of events in the future. For starters, the ballpark will host the 73rd Mid-Summer Classic, Milwaukee's third all-star game and its first since 1975. Additionally, Miller Park will also accommodate a University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee baseball doubleheader in April and even further in the future will play a part of Harley Davidson's 100th anniversary celebration in 2003.

With an economic impact, according to the Greater Milwaukee Convention and Visitors Bureau, of $416 million in 2001, Miller Park has played and will continue to be a huge part of the revival of Milwaukee as a tourist destination. Along with the new Calatrava wing of the Milwaukee Art Museum, the Midwest Express Convention Center and the proposed Harley Davidson Museum, Miller Park has definitely put Milwaukee on the map as a place to visit any time of year.

Here's just a sampling about what others are saying about baseball's newest jewel:

"There's no comparison. This is an awesome building and a great place to play. You miss County Stadium, but when you see this, you forget about it real quick. It's like you're outside. It doesn't have that closed-in feeling like most domes do. They brought the outside in, so it's awesome." Brewers legend Jim Gantner.

"Oh, boy is that beautiful. This is one of the greatest ballparks in the country. Some dome stadiums feel like you're in someone's living room. But this, people will fall in love with it." United States Senator Russell Feingold.

"I truly wanted to put the uniform back on and play again." Hall of Famer Robin Yount, on his first impressions of Miller Park.

"It's even better than we anticipated." Brewers Manager Davey Lopes.

"Well, we're home." Brewers infielder Mark Loretta.

A Milwaukee Baseball record 2,811,041 fans came through the turnstiles in the Inaugural Season at Miller Park.

What's Inside MILLER PARK?

Miller Park, the home of the Milwaukee Brewers, offers fans a one-of-a-kind entertainment experience.

The ballpark is the only one in North America to feature a convertible, fan-shaped roof guaranteeing that baseball will be played, even on the most inclement of Wisconsin days.

The roof features seven panels to cover the fans from the weather elements. Each roof panel is the equivalent of one Bradley Center roof in downtown Milwaukee. The entire roof closes in 10 minutes and at its outside height reaches 330 feet.

With a creative and unique split-bowl, seating configuration, fans are closer to the action than they have ever been before in Milwaukee. The four seating levels (the Field Level, the Loge Level, the Club Level and the Terrace Level), with 41,900 seats, give fans four great options and also four front rows from which to choose at Miller Park.

There are 70 suites at Miller Park including 20 Founders Suites located on the Field Level. They are the best suites in baseball. There are 50 suites on the Club Level, including several behind home plate affording suite holders a view of Brewers action unparalleled in Milwaukee baseball history.

The field dimensions at Miller Park, designed with the input of Hall of Famer and Brewers legend Robin Yount, are asymmetrical. The left field line is 344 feet; the left field power alley is 371 feet; straight-away center field is 400 feet; the right field power alley is 374 feet; and the right field line is 345 feet. The field has a natural grass playing surface and features the same infield mix as what existed at County Stadium, which had one of the best playing fields in Major League Baseball.

Miller Park offers fans upscale amenities including the .300 Club restaurant, TGI Friday's Front Row restaurant, an interactive area called the Big League Blast, an enormous and enticing novelty store called the Fan Zone as well as meeting rooms with amazing views of Milwaukee, all in the "Hot Corner" located in the left field area. The "Hot Corner" is open year-around to give fans and visitors a chance to enjoy Miller Park at any time.

"Isn't it nice, you can tell what's up there!" Bob Uecker referring to the scoreboard.

One of the truly remarkable features of Miller Park is the beautiful color replay board and full scoreboard located in straight-away centerfield. The color replay board is 48x37 feet and gives fans a crystal clear view of exciting replays and highlights that they have never had in Milwaukee before. The 76x32 foot matrix board provides fans with all of the pertinent information regarding the action on the field.

Miller Park also features "Home To Heroes", a series of colorful murals depicting five great industries of Wisconsin tied to the five eras of baseball in the state, beginning with the American League Brewers of 1901 and continuing to the current and future Brewers. These murals are displayed throughout Miller Park.

The Miller Park experience extends to the parking lots as well. Miller Park will essentially become a "park within a park" with landscaping, which accentuates the great Wisconsin tradition of tailgating.

Miller Park construction began in October, 1996 with the official groundbreaking date on November 9, 1996. The ballpark is being funded by a 0.1% sales tax in five counties including Milwaukee, Racine, Waukesha, Ozaukee and Washington counties. The Brewers contributed $90 million to the project, including a 20-year, $41.2 million naming rights deal with the Miller Brewing Company.

Visiting media wishing to tour Miller Park should contact the Brewers Media Relations Department prior to coming to Milwaukee.

Brewers Host2002 ALL-STAR GAME

The Milwaukee Brewers and Miller Park will host the 73rd Major League Baseball All-Star Game on Tuesday, July 9. It will be the culmination of a week-long celebration of baseball, which will bring an economic impact of more than $50 million to the local economy.

Milwaukee has hosted a pair of All-Star Games in the past with the National League earning both victories. In 1955, the Senior Circuit won 6-5 on a dramatic, 12th inning home run by St. Louis' Stan Musial.

In 1975, the Nationals was victorious, 6-3, over the Americans in Henry Aaron's final All-Star appearance.

The eyes of the World will be on Milwaukee with hundreds of millions of baseball fans tuned in on television and radio for the best All-Star Game in all of professional sports.

All-Star Week includes the John Hancock FanFest at the Midwest Express Center from July 5-9; the Radio Shack All-Star Sunday including the All-Star Futures Game and the Legends/Celebrity Softball Game; the Century 21 Home Run Contest on Monday and finally, the 73rd Major League All-Star Game on Tuesday.

The 1955 ALL-STAR GAME

Major League Baseball was still in the honeymoon stage in Milwaukee when the 1955 All-Star Game was held at County Stadium.

The Braves had moved to Milwaukee only two seasons earlier. They were playing well, in front of big crowds, at County Stadium.

Interestingly enough, the Braves would have hosted the 1953 All-Star Game, had they stayed in Boston. But, when the team moved to Milwaukee in that year, the Braves exchanged places in the All Star rotation with Cincinnati.

So, the '55 game gave Milwaukee fans a chance to show off their new stadium, and their enthusiasm for the game. A sellout crowd of 45,314 eagerly awaited the game.

The fans' excitement grew even more as the start of the game was delayed by a half-hour. Officials delayed the start because many of the game's dignitaries had attended the funeral of sportswriter Arch Ward in Chicago that very morning.

Ward, who served as sports editor for the Chicago Tribune, is credited with conceiving of the midsummer classic in 1933.

The game matched the pre-game hype and enthusiasm, as it went down to the last pitch, which Stan Musial hit for a game winning home run in a 6-5 National League win over the American League.

Milwaukee was well represented in the game, with catcher Del Crandall and third baseman Eddie Mathews in the starting lineup, Henry Aaron and Johnny Logan as reserves, and Gene Conley in the bullpen.

Conley ended up getting the win in relief. Aaron and Logan played roles in the Nationals' comeback from a 5-0 deficit.

"It was very exciting," Logan recalled. "We were the new guys in baseball, playing before big crowds. Milwaukee was the best baseball town in those days and wanted to show it."

Philadelphia's Robin Roberts made the fifth All-Star start of his career, tying Lefty Gomez for the most among any pitcher at that time. It did not go well. West Allis native Harvey Kuenn, representing the Tigers, singled on the second pitch of the contest.

The Americans scored four times in the first inning, with the Yankees' Mickey Mantle hitting a towering 430-foot homer into Perini's Woods in centerfield for three of the runs.

American League start Billy Pierce of the White Sox held the Nationals scoreless, as did the Indians' Early Wynn. The score remained 4-0 until the top of the sixth when the Americans added to their lead.

Al Kaline smashed a ball off Mathews' wrist at third that went for a double. Mathews was removed from the game after the inning, but X-rays showed no fracture. Kaline made the score 5-0 when he came home on Mickey Vernon's ground out.

The Americans almost scored again in the seventh when Ted Williams launched a long fly to center field, but Willie Mays made a leaping catch above the fence to rob Williams.

The Nationals got on the scoreboard with two in the seventh. Logan singled home Mays with the first run. Aaron, who had walked, scored on Chico Carrasquel's throwing error.

Mays started a game-tying rally in the eighth inning with a single off the Yankees' Whitey Ford. Big Ted Kluszewski of the Reds also singled, and Randy Jackson of the Cubs singled Mays home.

Boston's Frank Sullivan, a 6-7 righthander, relieved Ford and gave up a single to Aaron that scored Big Klu. Jackson also scored on the play when the throw from the outfield got away from the Indians' third baseman Al Rosen and Sullivan failed to back up the bag.

Rosen argued that the throw from the outfield hit Jackson, who had been sliding into third. His protest fell on deaf ears, and the score was tied, 5-5.

It stayed that way for the next three innings. The Americans almost took the lead in the 11th, but Red Schoendienst, then with the Cardinals, made a great play on a grounder by Yogi Berra to get out of the inning.

A great ovation ushered in Conley in the top of the 12th. The gangly righthander, who also played in the NBA, struck out Kaline, Vernon and Rosen and almost brought the house down.

"I was calm until the half inning was over," Conley recalled. "Then, when the cheering started I got so nervous I couldn't even see the crowd."

The crowd still was cheering for Conley when Musial came up to start the bottom of the 12th. The six-time batting champ had not started the game, but manager Leo Durocher got him into the contest early because Musial was poised to set records for All Star games (12) and at-bats (43).

Musial was 0-3 in the game, but the fans had reason for optimism when the lefthanded batter assumed his unorthodox peek-a-boo stance.

Sullivan still was on the mound for the AL. He delivered the first pitch to Musial, who promptly ended the game with a homer into the right field bleachers.

"I wanted to follow him," Conley said later. "I wanted to go out and run with him after he rounded first base."

As Musial crossed the plate, his teammates rushed from the National League dugout. Players in the uniforms of eight different clubs, plus others who had finished playing and had already showered and dressed in street clothes, mobbed Musial.

Conley got the win. Aaron was one of six players to get to hits in the contest. The Miracle in Milwaukee had a mid-summer classic to add to its growing list of magic moments to remember.

The 1975 ALL-STAR GAME

It had been 20 years since the All-Star Game had first appeared in Milwaukee County Stadium.

A lot had happened in Milwaukee baseball history between 1955, when Stan Musial ended the game with a 12th inning homer, and 1975, when the All Stars assembled again at the stadium.

The Braves' Miracle Years had come and gone, producing one World Championship in 1957, a second World Series in 1958, and record attendance seasons in the mid-'50s.

Those years had given way to decline, in the caliber of baseball played by the Braves and in attendance. The climax of that decline came when the Braves moved to Atlanta, breaking the hearts of thousands of baseball fans in Milwaukee.

County Stadium sat empty of Major League baseball for five seasons. The Green Bay Packers continued to play there, and a variety of other events were staged. But, the stadium was a lonely place without the sport it was built for.

Reggie Jackson

Thanks to the efforts of a group headed by Bud Selig, baseball returned to Milwaukee in 1970, when the Seattle Pilots were purchased out of bankruptcy and transformed within days into the Milwaukee Brewers.

The Brewers played in the American League, so the home field advantage had switched to the other league, even though the game was played in the same stadium as the 1955 game.

In many ways, the 1975 game symbolized the rising of Milwaukee from the ashes as a baseball town, and added legitimacy to the still young Brewers' organization.

While Milwaukee was now an American League town, the National League continued its streak of wins with a 6-3 decision. It was the Nationals 12th win in the last 13 games.

Two stars of the show got big billings before the contest. Secretary of State Henry Kissinger, a guest of then baseball commissioner Bowie Kuhn, threw out the first ball.

Henry Aaron, now a Brewer and in the twilight of his career, made his 24th and final All Star appearance, tying him with Willie Mays and Musial for the all-time record for games played. Aaron lined out to shortstop as a pinch-hitter in the second inning.

"I remember the Milwaukee fans gave me a great ovation," Aaron said. "It was just another example of how well I was treated my whole career in Milwaukee."

Musial and Mickey Mantle, who had hit a tape measure homer in the 1955 game, served as honorary captains of the National and American League teams respectively. It was an especially appreciated honor for Musial, whose homer had won the '55 game.

Vida Blue

The game produced 23 base hits, including three homers, four stolen bases, two hit batters, a couple errors and a variety of other action. It wasn't the cleanest played All Star Game ever, but it delivered enough action to entertain a sellout crowd.

Vida Blue, the ace of the Oakland A's staff, started the game. The A's had won the 1974 American League championship and were developing into the dominant force in baseball.

But, the Nationals roughed up Blue early, with two runs on five hits in two innings. Pete Rose of the Reds led off the first inning with a single. Steve Garvey and Jim Wynn, both of the Dodgers, put the NL up 2-0, with back-to-back homers off Blue to start the second inning.

The Nationals took a 3-0 lead with a run that Lou Brock of the Cardinals stole from the Royals' pitcher Steve Busby, who relieved Blue in the third inning.

Brock, the only NL starter other than the pitcher not from the Reds or Dodgers, singled, went to second base when a nervous Busby balked, stole third base and waltzed home on the Reds' Johnny Bench's single.

Jerry Reuss of the Pirates and Don Sutton of the Dodgers combined to shut out the AL for the first five innings, but the Americans tied the score, 3-3, with three runs off the Mets' Tom Seaver in the sixth.

Carl Yastrzemski of the Red Sox took Seaver deep with two runners on base to tie it 3-3.

The Mets' Jon Matlack relieved his teammate Seaver and shut out the Americans the rest of the way. A guy with a similar sounding name, Bill Madlock of the Cubs, would surface as a hero too for the NL.

In the top of the ninth, Reggie Smith of the Cardinals and Al Oliver of the Pirates singled off the A's Jim "Catfish" Hunter to put runners on first and third. Rich Gossage of the White Sox relieved Hunter and plunked Larry Bowa with a pitch to load the bases.

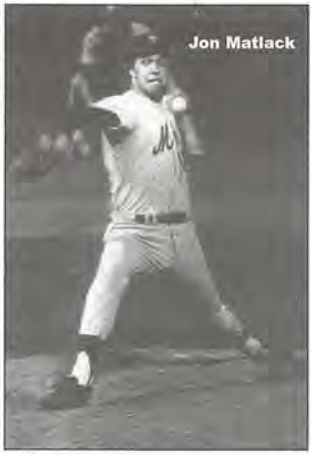
Madlock singled home Smith. Bowa went to third base and scored on Rose's sacrifice fly for a 6-3 NL lead.

Randy Jones pitched the bottom of the ninth inning for the Nationals and retired the AL in order to earn the save. Matlack got the win and shared MVP honors with Madlock. It marked the first time in All-Star history that two players shared the MVP award.

Rose and Garvey led NL hitters with two hits each. Bert Campaneris, the shortstop of the A's, was the only AL hitter with two hits.

In addition to Aaron, George "The Boomer" Scott appeared in the Game as a Brewers' representative. Scott went 0 for 2 and recorded five putouts as a reserve at first base.

Rod Carew, who later would serve as the Brewers' hitting coach under manager Davey Lopes, started at second base for the Americans and went 1 for 5.



Jon Matlack

Bill Madlock

The 1975 All-Star Game helped build fans' interest during a long building period for the Brewers. Shortly after the '75 season, Harry Dalton became general manager of the ballclub and started building what would be the only Brewers' pennant winner to date.

American League Roster: Vida Blue (Oakland), Thurman Munson (New York), Gene Tenace (Oakland), Rod Carew (Minnesota), Graig Nettles (New York), Bert Campaneris (Oakland), Bobby Bonds (New York), Reggie Jackson (Oakland), Joe Rudi (Oakland), Hank Aaron (Milwaukee), Steve Busby (Kansas City), Dave Chalk (California), Bucky Dent (Chicago), Rollie Fingers (Oakland), Bill Freehan (Detroit), Rich Gossage (Chicago), Mike Hargrove (Texas), Toby Harrah (Texas), George Hendrick (Cleveland), Catfish Hunter (New York), Jim Kaat (Chicago), Fred Lynn (Boston), Hal McRae (Kansas City), Jorge Orta (Chicago), Jim Palmer (Baltimore), Nolan Ryan (California), George Scott (Milwaukee), Claudell Washington (Oakland), Carl Yastrzemski (Boston).

National League Roster: Jerry Reuss (Pittsburgh), Johnny Bench (Cincinnati), Steve Garvey (Los Angeles), Joe Morgan (Cincinnati), Ron Cey (Los Angeles), Dave Concepcion (Cincinnati), Lou Brock (St. Louis), Pete Rose (Cincinnati), Jim Wynn (Los Angeles), Larry Bowa (Philadelphia), Gary Carter (Montreal), Dave Cash (Philadelphia), Randy Jones (San Diego), Greg Luzinski (Philadelphia), Bill Madlock (Chicago), Mike Marshall (Los Angeles), Jon Matlack (New York), Tug McGraw (Philadelphia), Andy Messersmith (Los Angeles), Bobby Murcer (San Francisco), Phil Niekro (Atlanta), Al Oliver (Pittsburgh), Tony Perez (Cincinnati), Manny Sanguillen (Pittsburgh), Tom Seaver (New York), Reggie Smith (St. Louis), Don Sutton (Los Angeles), Bob Watson (Houston).

Helfaer Field
WISCONSIN'S PREMIERE YOUTH BASEBALL FACILITY

The Milwaukee Brewers have joined with the Southeast Wisconsin Professional Baseball Park District Board and the Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation to build Helfaer Field, the home of Wisconsin's finest youth baseball facility.

Designed by Eppstein-Uhen Architects of Milwaukee, Helfaer Field has been built on the site of County Stadium by Hunzinger Construction, the company that built the original County Stadium and was a part of the team that built beautiful Miller Park.

The $3.1 million facility is being built through a $2 million charitable grant from the Helfaer Foundation as well as $1.1 million from the Miller Park infrastructure budget.

Featuring 502 bleacher seats and additional concourse seating of 220, this will be the premier location for youth baseball and softball leagues to host their championship games and tournaments. The fences reach 200 feet with walls at six foot heights with the exception of left field where the wall will be nine feet.

The foul poles of County Stadium have been used at Helfaer Field and the area where home plate existed in the old ballpark will be memorialized.

The Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation was founded on February 2, 1974 and is dedicated to charitable, religious and educational purposes in Wisconsin and the greater Milwaukee area. Mr. Helfaer was also an original investor in the Brewers.

Children from the three Brewers primary youth baseball leagues were on hand in August, 2001 to turn the dirt at the groundbreaking ceremony. The Little Hitters League, Girls of Summer Softball League and the Brewers RBI (Reviving Baseball in the Inner-City) are the three avenues the Brewers offer children from ages 6-17 to play baseball in Wisconsin with over 3,000 taking part statewide.

Beginning on June 1, Helfaer Field will be available for organized athletic events. The emphasis will primarily be to make Helfaer Field available for youth baseball (5-12) and girls softball. However, Helfaer Field will also be available for other groups and uses as well.

On non-Brewers game dates, there will be five time slots of two hours each available for rental. On Brewers night game home dates, there will be two time slots at two hours each available at 9:00 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. Helfaer Field will not be available on Brewers day game home dates.

Reservation forms are available at the Brewers offices as well as on the club's website at www.milwaukeebrewers.com. Forms may be returned in person, by fax to 414-902-4056, by e-mail to chrisb@milwaukeebrewers.com or by mail to Chris Barlow, Milwaukee Brewers, Miller Park, One Brewers Way, Milwaukee, WI 53214.

Helfaer FieldSUNDAYS

Beginning in June, the Milwaukee Brewers will offer fans a free chance to enjoy new Helfaer Field on Sundays when the club is at home

Helfaer Field Sundays will give fans of all ages a chance to enjoy baseball's premier youth baseball facility. The ballpark will be open from 10:30 a.m. until game time on all Sundays when the Brewers play at Miller Park during the 2002 season.

Families will able to utilize the patios for tailgating prior to Brewers games. Kids and adults alike will be able to go out and throw the ball around in the outfield at Helfaer Field. Bats will not be allowed.

DEAN TAYLOR

Senior Vice President and General Manager

Dean Taylor, 50, was named the Brewers Senior Vice President and General Manager on September 21, 1999 agreeing to a four-year contract through 2003.

He continues to develop the same winning attitude and atmosphere to the Brewers organization that he helped to build in nine successful seasons with the Atlanta Braves. During his tenure, the Brewers have acquired 37 new players through trades or free agent signings, 25 of whom are on the club's 2002 Spring Training 40-man roster (see chart below). Of those 37 additions, 19 have been pitchers.

He had been the Assistant General Manager for the Braves since November, 1990. He has spent 26 seasons in professional baseball, including 13 as an assistant to John Schuerholz, the Braves highly respected General Manager.

With the Braves, Taylor played a major role in the success of the club in the 1990's which included eight consecutive Eastern Division titles and a World Series championship in 1995. He was directly responsible for player contract negotiations and overseeing the day-to-day administrative duties related to Major League player personnel. He also worked closely with the scouting and player development departments.

Taylor began his Major League career with the Kansas City Royals in November, 1980, as their administrative assistant for Minor League Operations and Assistant Director of Scouting and Player Development until being named Assistant to the General Manager in 1985.

In 1990, he worked for Major League Baseball as the Manager of Baseball Operations and was involved in the negotiation between the Major and Minor Leagues in developing a new Professional Baseball Agreement (PBA) which included facility standards.

- A catch may be made on canvas.

OUTFIELD AREA
- Batted ball in flight going over yellow line on top of outfield fence: Home Run.
- Batted ball in flight striking scoreboard in centerfield: Home Run.

ROOF
- Batted ball strikes roof, roof truss, or roof cable over fair territory:
- Ball shall be judged fair or foul in relation to where it strikes the ground or is touched by a fielder.
- If caught by fielder, batter is out and runners advance at own risk.
- Batted ball strikes roof, roof truss, or roof cable over foul territory:
- Ball shall be judged foul, regardless of where it strikes the ground or is touched by a fielder.

If caught by fielder, batter is out and runners advance at own risk.

The decision as to whether a game begins with the roof open or closed rests solely with the Milwaukee Brewers.

If the game begins with the roof open:
- It shall be closed only in the event of impending rain or other adverse weather conditions. The decision to close the roof shall be made by the Brewers, after consultation with the Umpire Crew Chief.
- The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the decision if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.
- Once the roof is closed during a game, it may be reopened, by following the procedures for opening the roof as detailed below.

If the game begins with the roof closed:
- It may be opened when, in the opinion of the Brewers, the climatic environment has reached a level where fan comfort and enjoyment will be best served by opening the roof to the natural atmospheric conditions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following guidelines should be applied opening the roof during a game.
  - The opening of the roof shall only commence between whole innings.
  - The Umpire Crew Chief will be notified at the commencement of the inning that the roof will be opened at the inning's conclusion.
  - The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000: Earned the Brewers Newcomer Award . . . set career highs with nine victories and 12 saves . . . took over the closer's role on July 28 when Bob Wickman was traded to Cleveland . . . was 12-13 in save opportunities with his only blown save coming on September 13 at New York (N) . . . was spectacular after the All-Star Break with a 9-1 record, a 2.02 ERA and 11 saves . . . enjoyed pitching at County Stadium as he posted a 1.96 ERA at home . . . allowed just three of 31 (10%) inherited runners to score . . . was equally tough on righthanded hitters allowing a .211 average and lefthanded hitters, a .214 average . . . started the season slowly as he gave up nine runs in his first 14.1 innings pitched . . . after April, he posted a 1.86 ERA (13 ER in 63 IP) . . . Brewers were 39-34 in his games . . . was dominant against the Pittsburgh Pirates, his hometown team, earning four victories in four appearances including his first Brewers victory on July 25 at Three Rivers Stadium . . . longest outing was 2.2 innings on May 11 at Chicago (N) . . . was on the 15-Day Disabled List from May 12-30 with cellulitis of the groin . . . struck out a season high five batters in two innings on August 12 vs St. Louis . . . pitched in four straight games from June 28 - July 1 . . . had a season best 1.32 ERA in June . . . entered the game with multiple baserunners 10 times and allowed just one runner to score . . . went 30 games without allowing a home run from July 21-September 26, a span of 33.2 innings . . . signed a three-year contract with the Brewers on November 28.

1999: Was the dean of the Rockies bullpen in his fifth full season for Colorado . . . was the only pitcher in club history to appear in all seven seasons and ended the 1999 campaign having pitched in more career games than any Rockies pitcher in club history . . . made his 300th career appearance on April 27 at St. Louis, pitching three scoreless innings to tie his longest career relief outing and the longest since 1997 . . . smacked his first career home run on June 9 vs Seattle off Rafael Carmona . . . he became the franchise's all-time appearance leader on July 17 at Cincinnati, surpassing Steve Reed's 329 . . . first set a Rockies franchise record with strikeout number 400 on August 7 at Florida when he fanned Preston Wilson (Pedro Astacio surpassed him on September 6) . . . he led the bullpen with 48 inherited runners, allowing 19 to score (39.6%).

1998: Worked 75.2 innings, just two outs shy of Dave Veres' bullpen-leading 76.1 . . . his 4.40 ERA marked the second-lowest of his career . . . with 55 strikeouts he moved from fourth to first place on Colorado's all-time list (338) and surpassed Kevin Ritz when he fanned Mark Grudzielanek September 15 at Los Angeles . . . earned his first save vs Florida on April 28, preserving Pedro Astacio's win . . . went 1-0 with a 2.08 ERA in nine appearances in May . . . retired 14 consecutive hitters during a four-game stretch from May 8-16 . . . did not allow a run in nine July appearances, spanning 10.1 innings . . . recorded his second and final save on July 23 vs Cincinnati (#2) . . . stretched his scoreless innings streak to a club-record 21.2 innings from July 1-August 24 (17 appearances), tying the second longest relief streak in the National League . . . retired 44 of 66 first batters (67%) and allowed just six of 20 inherited runners (30%) to score on the year.

1997: Following off-season arthroscopic shoulder and elbow surgery, was placed on the 15-Day Disabled List March 24 with right shoulder fatigue . . . had a rehabilitation assignment at Class A Salem and made his 1997 debut April 12 vs Montreal . . . optioned to Triple A Colorado Springs where he spent five weeks . . . returned to the Rockies May 25 when Bruce Ruffin was placed on the 15-Day Disable List . . . picked up his first win June 18 vs Texas . . . did not allow a run over his final 14 appearances spanning 11.1 innings from August 31-September 28.

1996: Despite an injury-plagued season, made 70 appearances in relief and established a career best with seven wins, tying him for the top spot in the bullpen . . . his 76 strikeouts led the relief corps . . . opened the year in the closer role going 2-0 with six saves in April . . . converted each of his first six save attempts, his only saves of the year . . . began experiencing right shoulder soreness in late May and was placed on the 15-Day Disabled List June 2 (retroactive to May 30) . . . made a rehabilitation assignment at Triple A Colorado Springs, working three innings . . . returned to the Rockies on June 28 . . . allowed eight of 23 inherited runners to score, including just one of his final 11.

1995: Spent his first full season in the Major Leagues . . . ended his first season by recording the final out on October 1 to send the Rockies to the post season . . . led the Majors in appearances (76) and finished the year with 10 saves . . . was used exclusively in relief for the first time in his career, fanning 107 batters for second on the Colorado staff . . . recorded the first save of his professional career on June 4 vs Pittsburgh . . . excelled in July, allowing just three earned runs over 17 outings for a 1.47 ERA . . . struck out five of six batters faced in a save at Pittsburgh August 28 . . . allowed six of 46 inherited runners to score and just two of his last 30 . . . appeared in three post-season games, taking the loss in Game 1 when he surrendered a two-out, solo home run to Atlanta's Chipper Jones in the ninth inning.

1994: Opened the year at Triple A Colorado Springs and earned a promotion to the Rockies June 29 . . . his only win came at Chicago (N) on July 6 when he worked 5.1 innings . . . optioned back to Colorado Springs August 9 and finished the season with the third-lowest ERA (3.31) in the Pacific Coast League . . . started the first game of the playoffs for Colorado Springs, going five innings vs Albuquerque.

1993: Since the Rockies did not operate a Double A club in 1993, he opened the year on loan in Double A Wichita before his May 20 Triple A promotion . . . made his Major League debut on June 27 at San Francisco suffering the loss . . . posted his first Major League win on July 8 vs Florida.

1992: Was traded by Cleveland at the end of spring training to Minnesota with Oscar Munoz for Paul Sorrento . . . while at Triple A Orlando, he led the staff in strikeouts (126) and innings pitched (152.2).

1991: At Class A Kinston, was tied for the Carolina League lead in wins (15), the most by any hurler in the Cleveland chain.

1990: Began his professional career with Class A Kinston . . . won his last four outings and fanned 14 batters in the season finale.

2001 MINOR LEAGUE SUMMARY

2001 Players and Pitchers of the Month

Month	Player/Team	Pitcher/Team
April	Jim Rushford/High Desert	Jose Mieses/Huntsville
May	Bill Hall/High Desert	Ryan Miller/Beloit
June	Bucky Jacobsen/Indianapolis & Huntsville	Brian Mallette/Huntsville
July	Corey Hart/Ogden	Mike Shwam/Beloit
August	Dave Krynzel/High Desert	Matt Parker/High Desert

2001 Minor League Player of the Year
Bill Hall - High Desert/Huntsville

Hall split the 2001 season between Class A High Desert and Double A Huntsville. Bill not only hit .303 (105-346) at High Desert but he also crushed 15 dingers and swiped 18 bases. He was also named to the California League All-Star team before being promoted to Double A Huntsville in July. At Huntsville, Hall hit .256 (41-160) with three home runs and five stolen bases. He established career-highs in nearly every offensive category: hits (146), runs (75), triples (7), home runs (18), RBI (65), stolen bases (23). Following this season, Bill played for the Maryvale Saguaros of the Arizona Fall League. Hall hit .291 with 22 RBI in 37 games with Maryvale and was named to the All-Prospect Team for the league. He was recently named the organization's second best prospect (behind Neugebauer) and the organization's best defensive infielder by Baseball America.

2001 Minor League Pitcher of the Year
Nick Neugebauer - Huntsville/Indianapolis/Milwaukee

Neugebauer was named the number one prospect in the Brewers organization by Baseball America. Noogie began the 2001 season at Double A Huntsville where he went 5-6 with a 3.46 ERA (41 ER/106.2 IP) in 21 games (all starts). Despite being promoted to Indianapolis in July, Nick led the Southern League with 149 strikeouts. With Indianapolis, Neugebauer went 2-1 with a sparkling 1.50 ERA (4 ER/24.0 IP) in four starts with the Indians and finished the season leading the minors with 175 strikeouts. He was promoted to Milwaukee in August and made his Major League debut on August 19 at Cincinnati where he struck out nine batters in route to his first Major League victory. He made one other start for the Brewers on August 24 where he suffered the loss. He left the game with a shouder injury after pitching one inning. He was then placed on the 15-Day Disabled List with a strain in his right rotator cuff. Over the course of the season, Noogie averaged 12.25 strikeouts per nine innings pitched (186 strikeouts/136.2 IP).

High DesertMAVERICKS

California League (A)
2001 Final Record: 71-69 (.507)/ Northern Division/Wild Card Winners
First Half: 37-33 (.529) / Second Place
Second Half: 34-36 (.486) / Third Place
Manager: Frank Kremblas (Second Year)

High Desert was 71-69 in its first season as a Brewers Minor League affiliate. The Mavericks reached the playoffs as the California League Wild Card entry out of the Northern Division.

Infielder Bill Hall was named the Brewers' Minor League Player of the Year after batting .303 with 15 home runs and 51 RBI at High Desert. He also earned a late-season call-up to Huntsville where he batted .256 in 41 games. Hall was named the ninth best prospect in the California League by Baseball America. Teammate Dave Krynzel was rated as the 15th best prospect. The speedy outfielder hit .277 with five home runs and 33 RBI as the Mavericks lead-off hitter and finished strong batting .378 over his final 28 games. Krynzel also stole 45 bases between High Desert and Beloit.

Infielder Bill Scott had a tremendous year offensively in his first year of professional baseball with a .283 average, 42 doubles, 16 homers and 102 RBI.

On the mound, Matt Parker was 13-6 to lead the club in victories while Gene Altman and Roberto Giron each had 12 saves to pace the staff.

2002 Milwaukee Brewers Media Guide

• Thanks to the dedicated efforts of Milwaukee Brewers, Inc., an organization formed by Allan H. "Bud" Selig and Edmund Fitzgerald several years prior to return Major League Baseball to the city, the "Seattle Pilots" franchise was acquired April 1.
• Team renamed "Brewers", a popular name in Milwaukee and a tribute to the city's long association with Brewing industry.
• The Brewers, managed by Dave Bristol, acquire Russ Snyder and Max Alvis from the Cleveland Indians in exchange for outfielder Roy Foster, infielder Frank Coogins and cash in their first trade on April 4.
• The Brewers played their first game on April 7 as a member of the American League West before 37,237 enthusiastic fans at County Stadium on April 7 as Lew Krausse drops a 12-0 decision to Andy Messersmith and the California Angels.
• John O'Donoghue defeats the White Sox, 8-4, in Chicago on April 11th for the team's first win.
• Bob Bolin fans 10 as the Brewers earn their first home win on May 6th over the Red Sox, 4-3.
• The 69-year-old Milt Mason, as "Bernie Brewer", goes into a trailer atop the stadium scoreboard in late June, vowing not to descend until the team draws a home crowd of 40,000, which occurs on August 16.
• Tommy Harper becomes the first American Leaguer to hit more than 30 homers and steal more than 30 bases during the same season with totals of 31 and 38, respectively.

• Famous Frank "Trader" Lane replaces Marvin Milkes as General Manager.
• Team wins first season opener on April 7, a 7-2 win at Minnesota behind Marty Pattin.
• Bill Parsons is named Rookie Pitcher of the Year by The Sporting News.
• Ken Sanders appears in 83 games, winning seven and saving 31. He is named Fireman of the Year by The Sporting News.
• Brewers pull off a blockbuster deal during the World Series trading Pattin, Tommy Harper, Lew Krausse and Minor Leaguer Pat Skrable to Boston for George Scott, Jim Lonborg, Ken Brett, Joe Lahoud, Billy Conigliaro and Don Pavletich.
• With the shift of the Washington franchise to Texas, the Brewers move to the Eastern Division for the 1972 season.

1972

• A players strike, which delays the opening of the season, unusually bad summer weather and the performance of the team all contribute to a record-low attendance of 600,400.
• Dave Bristol is fired following the Brewers 9-3 loss at Boston on May 27.
• Del Crandall, a popular ex-player in Milwaukee, takes over.
• Team involved in 22-inning marathon against Twins on May 12, a game in which infielder Bob Heise bats 10 times.
• Skip Lockwood hurls a one-hitter against the Yankees on May 30th in Crandall's managerial debut
• Jim Wilson is appointed General Manager in October, replacing Frank Lane.

1973

• Season opener is delayed four days after a 13-inch snowstorm blankets the city.
• In the most exciting season to date, the Brewers put together a 10-game winning streak in June, winning 15 of 16 during this span and occupying first place as late as June 19th.

• Not since the 1948-49 Boston Red Sox has a team produced three players with 100 or more RBI in two consecutive seasons. In 1979 Gorman Thomas (123), Cecil Cooper (106) and Sixto Lezcano (101) became the first Milwaukee trio to go over 100 RBI in a season. This season, Cooper (122), Ben Oglivie (118) and Thomas (105) put the Brewers in the record books.
• Sal Bando drives in his 1,000th RBI in his hometown of Cleveland on April 29; Cecil Cooper collects his 1,000th hit on July 21 in New York; Reggie Cleveland wins his 100th game on July 25 in Baltimore; and probably the most remarkable feat of the year came on August 16, when Robin Yount becomes one of the youngest players to ever attain 1,000 hits. At the tender age of 24, Yount puts his name alongside such Hall of Fame notables as Ty Cobb and Al Kaline.
• In an effort to improve the ball club, General Manager Harry Dalton wheels and deals at the annual winter meetings, trading with the St. Louis Cardinals for All-Star Catcher Ted Simmons, steady starter Pete Vuckovich and the all-time save leader in baseball, Rollie Fingers. He also picks up third baseman Roy Howell in the Re-Entry Draft and later signs pitcher Randy Lerch, making the Brewers the team to beat in the East in 1981.

• In an interrupted season, it comes down to the first half-winners - New York - versus the second season winners - Milwaukee.
• Rollie Fingers establishes himself from the outset, earning a save in the season opener against Cleveland before an American League 1981 season-high crowd of 71,067 fans at Cleveland Stadium.
• His performance is unmatched as he posts a 6-3 record, a 1.04 ERA and a Major League high 28 saves in 47 appearances.
• Brewers secure first post-season spot in franchise history defeating Detroit 2-1 on October 3.
• For his efforts, Fingers becomes the first relief pitcher in Major League history to win both the Cy Young Award and the Most Valuable Player Award in the same season.
• In addition, Rollie earns his fourth Rolaids Relief Man of the Year Award, The Sporting News Fireman of the Year Award and the Joe Cronin Award for distinguished service.

• Picked as the favorite to capture the American League Eastern Division, the Brewers match that prediction on June 2.
• The Brewers rebound from the second division and became a contender under new Manager Harvey Kuenn. Under the Brewers "only" batting coach, Milwaukee becomes known as "Harvey's Wallbangers", chalking up a 72-43 mark after June 2 and finishing with the best record in baseball at 95-67.
• In June, the Brewers win 20 of 27 games, the team sets an AL record and tied a Major League mark by blasting 35 homers over the course of 15 consecutive games.
• The Sporting News "Player of the Year" Robin Yount leads the league in four offensive categories with 210 hits, 367

total bases, a .578 slugging percentage and 46 doubles, also earning the AL "Most Valuable Player" honor from the BBWAA.
• Pete Vuckovich is named the Cy Young Award Winner in the AL with an 18-6 record, helped along by two eight-game winning streaks during the course of the campaign.
• With the Brewers sweeping both major awards, coupled with the Rollie Fingers sweep in 1981, Milwaukee becomes the only AL team ever to sweep both awards two straight years.
• Newcomer Don Sutton is acquired in late August from Houston notched a 4-1 mark, but more impressively, wins the season finale in Baltimore which gives the Brewers the Eastern Division Title on October 3.
• Defensively, the Brewers lead the AL for the second straight year in double plays and Yount earns his first Gold Glove.
• After falling behind two games to none in the best of five series, the Brewers rallied to become the first team ever to win the League Championship Series after being down 0-2. The 3-2 ALCS victory in the five-game series gave the Brewers the AL pennant and a berth in the 79th World Series against National League Champion St. Louis Cardinals.
• In an exciting series labeled the "Suds Series", the Brewers and Cardinals play the full seven games with St. Louis earning the title of "World Champions" with a 6-3 victory in the series finale.
• In Milwaukee, the Brewers fans show their loyalty by turning out in the thousands to greet their heroes home in a special ticker-tape parade downtown and at County Stadium.

• The club sets an all-time Milwaukee attendance mark as 2,397,131 fans go through the turnstiles.
• Despite numerous injuries, the Brewers have their sixth straight winning season, maintaining their ranking with the third best record in the Majors over the past six seasons.
• Cecil Cooper's 126 RBI sets a new club record and tied with Jim Rice to lead the Major Leagues. Cooper also collects his 1,500th career hit and hits over .300 for the seventh straight season.
• Moose Haas leads league with an .813 winning percentage and ties club record with an eight-game winning streak.

• Scott Karl equals the club record for consecutive victories by a left-handed pitcher with eight wins July 15- August 29.
• Steve Woodard makes his Major League debut in game one of a July 28 doubleheader with Toronto at County Stadium. Woodard picks up his first win by tossing eight innings off one-hit ball and striking out 12 batters. He outduels Roger Clemens and ties the American League record for most strikeouts in a Major League debut set by Elmer Myers of the Philadelphia Athletics in 1915.
• In game two of their July 28 doubleheader at County Stadium with the Toronto Blue Jays, the Brewers turn their first triple play since 1979. Alex Gonzalez grounds into a Jeff Cirillo (3B) to Mark Loretta (2B) to David Nilsson (1B) triple play in the fourth inning.
• Jeromy Burnitz ties an American League record by homering in consecutive pinch-hit at-bats August 2-3. It is the 15th time in AL history that a player homers in back-to-back pinch-hit at-bats.
• Burnitz sets a Brewers record by homering in five consecutive games from August 1-5. The previous club record is set by Sixto Lezcano who homers in four straight games, July 19-22, 1979. Burnitz becomes the first player to homer in five straight games since Cleveland's Sandy Alomar Jr. homered in five from April 4-8, 1997.
• Phil Garner becomes the Brewers all-time winningest manager with his 423rd win August 24 with a 6-0 victory over Texas.
• Doug Jones strikes out the side on nine pitches in the ninth inning in the first game of a doubleheader on September 23 vs Kansas City.
• Jeff Cirillo collects 46 doubles for the second straight season, tying him for the second-best in club history.
• Doug Jones earns 36 saves converting a club record 25 consecutive save opportunities.
• On November 6, the Brewers, as part of Phase One of Major League Baseball's realignment plan, become a member of the National League. The Brewers transfer, the first since the American League was formed at the turn of the century, was necessary to create a 16-team National League and a 14-team American League. Milwaukee joins the Chicago Cubs, Cincinnati Reds, Houston Astros, Pittsburgh Pirates and St. Louis Cardinals in the National League Central Division.

• On March 31, the Brewers play their first game ever as a National League franchise, dropping a heartbreaking 2-1 score to the Atlanta Braves at Turner Field. Cal Eldred and Greg Maddux duel in the opener with Eldred smashing a single off of the Braves great.
• On April 2, the Brewers earn their first ever victory in the National League with a thrilling 8-6, extra inning win highlighted by a Jeromy Burnitz grand slam in the 11th inning.
• Jose Valentin blasts three home runs on April 3 at Florida, becoming just the fifth player in Brewers history to accomplish the feat.
• In the home opener on April 7, the Brewers beat the Montreal Expos, 6-4, in front of 51,408 fans at County Stadium.
• Rookie Geoff Jenkins becomes the first Brewers player ever to homer in his first big league game. He belts a solo homer off San Francisco's Orel Hershiser at 3Com Park in California on April 24. Jenkins joins Chuck Tanner (1955) as the only players in Milwaukee baseball history to homer in their first game.

• Pitcher Jeff Juden drives in four runs on May 2 vs Cincinnati. He ties the club record for RBI as a pitcher joining George Lauzerique who also has four RBI in a 1970 game.
• Second baseman Fernando Vina is the Brewers All-Star representative at the Mid-Summer classic at Coors Field in Denver, Colorado. He reaches base twice with a single and a walk.
• After the All-Star Break, the Brewers begin to struggle offensively. Batting coach Lamar Johnson is replaced by Jim Lefebvre in early August.
• Pitcher Bronswell Patrick becomes the first Brewers hurler to swat a home run since 1971 (Skip Lockwood) on August 1 vs Arizona at County Stadium.
• Bob Hamelin hits his fourth pinch-hit home run of the season on August 23 vs San Diego at County Stadium. It is the most pinch-hit home runs hit by a single Brewers player in a season and lifetime.
• Manager Phil Garner earns his 500th victory at the Brewers helm on August 26 at Colorado. He is the only skipper in team history to reach that milestone.
• In September, County Stadium becomes the home of Baseball's Home Run Chase as St. Louis' Mark McGwire and Chicago's Sammy Sosa highlight the Brewers final homestand of 1998. McGwire hits two home runs, number 64 and 65, while Sosa belts numbers 64 and 65 to thrill record crowds at the ballpark.
• The Brewers set numerous attendance records during the final homestand including the largest three-game series (155,157) and the largest two-game series (97,625). Milwaukee also has three consecutive sellouts for the first time in team history.
• Vina and Jeff Cirillo combine for 392 hits for the season, the most by Brewers teammates since 1989 when Paul Molitor and Robin Yount combined for 389.
• Burnitz finishes a monster year with 38 home runs and 125 runs batted in. The RBI total is just one shy of Cecil Cooper's club record of 126 in 1983.
• Bill Campbell and Bob Melvin are added to the coaching staff on November 19 with Ron Jackson joining the coaching staff on January 19,1999, to replace Don Rowe, Chris Bando and Joel Youngblood.

• The Brewers come out victorious on Opening Day for the first time since 1996 defeating St. Louis 10-8 at Busch Stadium on April 5.
• Milwaukee snaps a five-year streak of winning their home opener after dropping a 9-4 decision to the Chicago Cubs on April 16.
• The Brewers retire Paul Molitor's number four in a pre-game ceremony on June 11. Should he be elected into Baseball's Hall of Fame, Molitor states he would be honored to enter as a Milwaukee Brewer.
• Jose Valentin becomes the third Brewer in franchise history to homer from both sides of the plate in the same game on July 1 at Wrigley Field with a two-run homer off Dan Serafini in the fourth and a second two-run blast off Scott Sanders in the ninth.
• For the first time since 1982, the Milwaukee Brewers have two players represent them at the Mid-Summer Classic as Jeromy Burnitz and David Nilsson are both selected by National League manager Bruce Bochy.
• Burnitz becomes first Brewer to compete in the Century 21 Home Run Derby finishing second to Seattle's Ken Griffey Jr.
• Burnitz also becomes the first Brewer to make a start in the Mid-Summer Classic since Paul Molitor was the American League's starting second baseman in 1988. Burnitz makes the start in left field due to Tony Gwynn being sidelined with an injury.
• Tragedy strikes Miller Park when a crane collapses, killing three on July 14.
• Robin Yount becomes the first player to be inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in a Brewers cap on July 25.
• Jeromy Burnitz receives National League Player of the Month honors for July.
• The Brewers replace manager Phil Garner with interim manager Jim Lefebvre on August 12. General Manager Sal Bando is reassigned within the organization as the Special Assistant to the President.
• Marquis Grissom collects his 1,500th hit on August 18 at Houston after singling in the first inning off Mike Hampton.
• Jeff Cirillo is named National League Player of the Week for the week ending September 20.
• The Brewers name Dean Taylor as Senior Vice President and General Manager on September 21.
• Bob Wickman eclipses the Brewers single season saves record previously held by Doug Jones with his 37th save on September 21 in the first game of a doubleheader vs Pittsburgh.
• On September 30, the Milwaukee Brewers are awarded the 2002 Major League All-Star game by Major League Baseball.
• Davey Lopes is named the new Brewers Manager on November 4.
• The Brewers announce their new coaching staff as pitching coach Bob Apodaca, third base coach Chris Speier and bench coach Jerry Royster join bullpen coach Bill Castro on November 12. First base coach Gary Allenson is added to the staff on November 22 with Hall of Famer Rod Carew joining the Brewers on November 23.
• The Brewers make a blockbuster deal on December 13 as they acquire Jamey Wright and Henry Blanco from Colorado and Jimmy Haynes from Oakland in exchange for Jeff Cirillo, Scott Karl and cash as part of a four-team, nine-player deal.

• In Davey Lopes' managerial debut, the Brewers record their first tie in club history after the season opener at Cincinnati is suspended with the score knotted up at three apiece following six innings of play.
• The Brewers waste little time in providing Lopes with his first managerial victory as last minute starter Valerio De Los Santos pitches five strong innings, Jeromy Burnitz hits a pair of home runs and newcomer Jim Bruske picks up his first win in a 5-1 Milwaukee victory on April 4 at Cincinnati.
• Celebrating 30 years as the Voice of the Brewers, Bob Uecker, throws out the ceremonial first pitch as the Brewers defeat the Florida Marlins 4-3 on April 10 in the final home opener at County Stadium.
• The injury bug strikes as Geoff Jenkins is placed on the disabled list following the game on May 5 vs Montreal after suffering an avulsion fracture of the middle finger on his right hand.
• Making his first start in over two years, Jeff D'Amico turns in a stellar performance allowing three unearned runs in seven innings to record the victory on May 9 at Chicago (N).
• The Brewers and Cubs close out a wild four-game series in marathon fashion tying the National League record for a nine-inning game as the final out is recorded after four hours and 22 minutes of play.
• Jose Hernandez becomes the first Brewer to hit multiple grand slams in the same season since 1995 hitting the second of his career off Mark Gardner on May 20 vs San Francisco and his third off Kevin Millwood on May 23 vs Atlanta.

• Hernandez' solo home run in the 10th on May 22 against Houston completes an amazing rally as the Brewers battle back from a 9-2 deficit entering the ninth inning with a club record seven runs to send the game into extra frames and defeat the Astros 10-9 in the first game of a doubleheader.
• Tyler Houston becomes the sixth player in franchise lore to leave the yard three times in the same game. Houston's career high three home runs and six runs batted in lead to a 10-3 victory over the Detroit Tigers on July 9 to close out the first half.
• Bob Wickman heads to Atlanta representing the Brewers in the 71st All-Star Game at Turner Field. Wickman pitches a scoreless ninth.
• The Brewers are dealt another blow on June 2 as Mark Loretta fouls a ball off his foot in the first inning placing him on the disabled list until August 18.
• Jeff D'Amico throws a five-hitter for the first shutout by a Brewers' starter since August 24, 1997 defeating the Pittsburgh Pirates 6-0 on July 19 at County Stadium.
• Dean Taylor comes through again as the Brewers and Cleveland Indians complete a seven player trade bringing first baseman Richie Sexson, pitchers Paul Rigdon and Kane Davis, and a player to be named later (Marcos Scutaro) to Milwaukee in exchange for pitchers Jason Bere, Bob Wickman and Steve Woodard prior to their game against Colorado on July 28.
• Jeff D'Amico reaps the benefits of an extraordinary month winning National League Pitcher of the Month honors. Big Daddy posts a 5-0 mark with a 0.76 ERA in six July starts.
• D'Amico keeps rolling setting a Brewers' NL mark winning his eighth straight decision defeating Arizona 4-3 at Bank One on August 22.
• The Brewers close out County Stadium in grand fashion going 8-2 during their final homestand.
• An 8-1 defeat at the hands of the Cincinnati Reds on September 29 is not enough to take away from the finale as a crowd of 56,354 is treated to an appearance by Olympic Gold Medalist, Ben Sheets, and a 100-minute ceremony emceed by Bob Uecker. Some of the returning heroes include Hall Of Famers Henry Aaron and Warren Spahn of the Braves, Willie Davis and Jim Taylor of the Green Bay Packers and Rollie Fingers and Robin Yount of the Brewers.
• The Brewers assure themselves a third place finish in the NL Central defeating the Houston Astros 13-3 on September 29 at Enron Field, their highest finish since 1997.

• Injury bug strikes early as Mark Loretta suffers a torn ligament in left thumb on March 12 against Anaheim in spring play.
• Ben Sheets makes his Major League debut on April 4 at Houston suffering his first loss in an 8-2 Astros victory.
• On April 4, the Brewers acquire pitchers Mike DeJean and Mark Leiter and infielder Elvis Pena from the Rockies in exchange for pitchers Juan Acevedo and Kane Davis and minor league infielder Jose Flores.
• The Brewers open Miller Park in grand fashion defeating the Cincinnati Reds 5-4 with President George W. Bush and Commissioner of Baseball Allan H. "Bud" Selig on hand.
• Milwaukee completes an Opening Weekend sweep at Miller Park defeating Cincinnati 8-4 on April 8.
• Jose Hernandez equals Ted Kubiak's 1970 franchise mark driving in seven runs on April 12 vs Houston.
• The Brewers set their April attendance record in just nine home dates as a crowd of 25,981 pushes the season total to 293,008 besting the previous mark of 268,544 set in 1987.
• Jeff D'Amico makes his first trip to the disabled list on April 24 where he would be on and off again until September 1.
• Three Geoff Jenkins' home runs pave the way for Ben Sheets first Major League victory on April 28 vs Montreal.
• Jenkins continues his onslaught equaling a Major League record hitting five home runs and driving in 12 runs over the course of consecutive games earning NL Player of the Week honors while Jamey Wright quietly tosses a two-hit shutout April 29 vs Montreal.
• Jeromy Burnitz becomes the second Brewer to homer three times in a game accomplishing the feat May 10 vs Chicago (N).
• Devon White matches the ML record for grand slams in a month hitting three: May 10 vs Chicago (N), May 15 at Philadelphia and May 20 at Pittsburgh.
• Sheets pitches his first career complete game shutout blanking the Cardinals on May 29 at Busch Stadium.
• A faulty bus duct knocks out power on the left side of the park resulting in the first called game at Miller Park June 15 vs Kansas City.
• Mark Loretta becomes the first Brewers' position player to pitch since 1991 tossing a scoreless ninth June 20 at Cincinnati.
• Milwaukee improves to 38-34 after sweeping the Chicago Cubs June 22-24 at Wrigley Field.
• Sheets wins career-best sixth consecutive decision defeating Houston 6-1 on June 29 at Miller Park. He becomes the Brewers first rookie representative at the Mid-Summer Classic when he is named to the team on July 4.
• The Brewers lose their first of 11 consecutive games on July 14 vs Minnesota. Mark Loretta snaps the third longest losing streak in franchise history with a run-scoring single in the ninth on July 25 vs Los Angeles.

Brewers PINCH-HIT HOME RUNS

The Milwaukee Brewers have hit 52 pinch-hit home runs in their history. Of those, 30 came at County Stadium and two at Miller Park while 20 have been hit on enemy soil. In 1997, Jeromy Burnitz became the first player in Brewers history to hit pinch-hit homers in two consecutive games. He also tied the American League record for pinch-hit homers in consecutive at bats with two. Tyler Houston hit the first pinch hit homer at Miller Park, a two-run game-winning shot on April 24, 2001 vs New York (N).

Brewers1-0 GAMES

The Milwaukee Brewers have played 90 games in which the final score was 1-0. Their record in games of this type is 46-44. The 1971 season saw a club record eight 1-0 games while 1982 and 1996 were the only two years that the Brewers did not play a game of this type. Boldface indicates the Brewers pitcher involved while * indicates that the pitcher did not throw a complete game.

BrewersGRAND SLAMS

The Milwaukee Brewers have hit 104 grand slams, 50 at County Stadium, four at Miller Park and 50 on the road, since 1970. Fifty-one players have hit grand slams as members of the Brewers. The Brewers hit a club record 10 grand slams in 1995. Jeromy Burnitz, Cecil Cooper and John Jaha are the Brewers All-Time leaders with five bases loaded round trippers. Rob Deer, Ben Oglivie, Gorman Thomas and Jose Valentin have each hit four grand slams. Jaha (1995) and Devon White (2001) own the distinction as the Brewers All-Time leaders for grand slams in a season with three.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS WITH 200 HIT SEASONS

Three players have surpassed the 200 hit mark in one season while wearing a Brewers uniform, led by Cecil Cooper, who accomplished the feat three times. Cooper set a club record in 1980 when he pounded out 219 hits. He also accomplished the feat in 1982 (205) and 1983 (203). Paul Molitor reached the 200-hit plateau in 1982 with 201. Robin Yount (210) has also accomplished the feat, as Yount, Cooper and Molitor finished 1-2-3 in the American League in hits in 1982, marking the first time that has happened since the 1915 Detroit Tigers.

Brewers RETIRED NUMBERS

Hank AARON

Born: 2/5/34 in Mobile, Alabama
Position: Outfield
Bats/Throws: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1954-65, 75-76

Hammerin' Hank had his famous number "44" retired after the conclusion of the 1976 season. Aaron played baseball in Milwaukee from 1954 through 1965 with the Braves and in 1975 and '76 with the Brewers. He was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1982 after closing out his career with a record 755 home runs. He was the National League's MVP in 1957, the year the Braves won the World Series. Aaron also hit 40-or-more home runs in eight seasons, drove in 100-or-more runs 16 times and had a .305 lifetime batting average.

Rollie FINGERS

Born: 8/25/46 in Steubenville, Ohio
Position: Pitcher
Bats/Throws: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1981-85

The man who made the Handlebar Mustache famous had his number "34" retired on August 9, 1992 in ceremonies at County Stadium. Fingers, who was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1992, spent five seasons in a Brewers uniform. He made his mark on the baseball world as the game's first relief ace. Fingers also won both the Cy Young and Most Valuable Player awards in 1981, the first pitcher to accomplish the feat since Oakland's Vida Blue in 1971.

Robin YOUNT

Born: 9/16/55 in Danville, Illinois
Position: Shortstop/Outfield
Bats/Throws: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1974-93

The Kid had his legendary number "19" retired in ceremonies at County Stadium on May 29, 1994. Yount played his entire 20-year career with the Brewers from 1974-93 breaking into the big leagues at the tender age of 18. Yount won Most Valuable Player awards in 1982 and 1989. He became the 17th player in baseball history to record 3,000 career hits when he accomplished the feat on September 9, 1992 against the Cleveland Indians at County Stadium with a single off Jose Mesa. Yount became the first player to enter the National Baseball Hall of Fame as a Brewer after being inducted on July 25, 1999.

Jackie ROBINSON

Born: 1/31/19 in Cairo, Georgia
Position: Second Base
Bats/Throws: R/R
Years in the Majors: 10

The man who broke baseball's color barrier as a Brooklyn Dodger had his number "42" retired by Major League Baseball in 1997. The Brewers honored Robinson in special pre-game ceremonies at County Stadium July 18, 1997. Former Brewers pitcher Scott Karl was the last Brewer to wear number "42" as a tribute to Robinson.

Paul MOLITOR

Born: 8/22/56 in St. Paul, Minnesota
Position: Infield
Bats/Throws: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1978-92

"The Ignitor" had his number "4" retired by the Milwaukee Brewers prior to their game against the Minnesota Twins on July 11, 1999. Molitor's career in Milwaukee spanned 12 seasons and was highlighted by the 1982 World Series in addition to an exhiliarating 39-game hitting streak while playing with Team Streak during the 1987 season. During the ceremony, Molitor said that should he be elected into the Baseball Hall of Fame, he would be honored to enter as a Milwaukee Brewer. He will be eligible to appear on the ballot for the first time in 2003.

BrewersPOST-SEASON HISTORY

1981 AMERICAN LEAGUE EASTERN DIVISION SERIES

Milwaukee vs New York

For the first time in Major League history, a divisional playoff series was established because of the split season. In the American League Eastern Division, New York, winners of the first half confronted Milwaukee, winners of the second half. It was the 34th time the Yankees participated in post-season action, while it marked the first appearance in playoff competition for the Brewers. New York took the best of five series, three-games-to-two and swept three games from Oakland to earn the American League Championship. The Yankees lost to the National League Champion Los Angeles Dodgers four-games-to-two in the 78th World Series.

1982 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Milwaukee vs California

In a dramatic and thrilling American League Championship Series, Milwaukee set a precedent in LCS play. The Brewers overcame an 0-2 deficit against California to win their first American League Pennant. The Angels captured the first two games played in Anaheim and the Brewers rallied at County Stadium, sweeping three straight games. The comeback performance by Milwaukee was a first in LCS history.

1982 WORLD SERIES

Milwaukee vs St. Louis

It was labeled the Suds Series, and the 79th World Series between Milwaukee and St. Louis truly foamed over with exciting action as it went the limit. The Series was tied three times and each club held the advantage twice in the see-saw battle. The Cardinals won their ninth World Championship by downing the Brewers four-games-to-three, including winning the final two games in St. Louis. It was St. Louis' 13th trip to the World Series and Milwaukee's first trip to the October Classic.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Admission to Stadium

Enter through the South Dock located in the right field corner on the Service level at Miller Park. The press gate is open four (4) hours prior to game time. Baseball Writers of America Association (BBWAA) cards or working credentials issued by the Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations or by Major League Baseball are required for admittance. NO OTHER CREDENTIALS WILL BE HONORED. The media cab drop entrance is also at the South Dock entrance off Highway 41.

Bob Betts Press Box

The Bob Betts Press Box is located on the Loge level directly behind home plate. The main press box, as well as the adjacent radio and television booths, have rolling windows that are either entirely open or entirely closed. The main press box is a smoke-free environment. There are seven radio and television booths that are reserved for both home and visiting announcers. A quiet work room is located immediately behind the press box and should be used during post-game by radio stringers to send sound. An elevator directly behind the press box will transport media directly to the Service level. This elevator is reserved for media and first aid.

Clubhouses

The Home Clubhouse is located on the Service level on the first base side. The Visiting Clubhouse is located on the Service level on the third base side. ONLY PROPERLY CREDENTIALED MEDIA ARE ALLOWED IN THE CLUBHOUSES. Print Media is allowed access beginning three-and-a-half (3 1/2) hours prior to game time. All media must leave the clubhouse forty-five (45) minutes prior to game time. TRAINERS ROOM, X-RAY ROOM, KITCHEN, WEIGHT ROOM AND VIDEO ROOM ARE OFF LIMITS TO MEDIA. The clubhouse area is closed during respective club's batting practice sessions. STILL PHOTOGRAPHERS ARE NOT ALLOWED IN THE CLUBHOUSES WITHOUT PRIOR APPROVAL FROM THE CLUB'S MEDIA RELATIONS STAFF.

Dark Room Facilities

There are Dark Room facilities located on the Service level across from the Brewers Clubhouse. Modem lines are available for photographers to transmit their photographs electronically.

Field

Access to the playing field is available through the runways leading from the respective clubhouses or through the door to the immediate right of the Visitor's Clubhouse. ONLY PROPERLY CREDENTIALED MEDIA ARE ALLOWED ON THE FIELD. Live or direct transmissions are permitted from the field until thirty (30) minutes prior to game time.

Media Interview Room

The Media Interview Room is located directly across from the Brewers clubhouse. It is a classroom-style facility that features telephone and power service. The Media Interview Room seats 93 media members and contains mult boxes for radio and television usage. Manager Davey Lopes will be in the interview room during nearly every post-game.

Parking

Parking passes must be requested in advance. To access the parking area, enter at the end of the Miller Park Way freeway exit off Highway 41. The Media Parking Area is in the Phillies Lot located just south of the South Dock entrance.

Post-Game Access

The Brewers Clubhouse is open approximately ten (10) minutes after the conclusion of the game. ALL PROPERLY CREDENTIALED MEDIA ARE ALLOWED ACCESS.

Press Hospitality and Meals

Press hospitality is open to those with a BBWAA card or applicable credentials issued by the Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations Department or Major League Baseball. Meals will be served beginning 2 1/2 hours prior to game time. A seven ($7) dollar charge is levied and a hand stamp will be issued allowing for free service during the game. Media not purchasing the main daily meal will be charged in-game for their food. The Media Dining Room is located in the Bob Betts Press Box immediately behind the main press box and broadcast booths on the Loge level. A daily menu is posted.

Television Crews

Space to shoot game highlights is available upon request. NO LIVE TRANSMISSION IS ALLOWED DURING GAMES. Additional game highlights are available through the Miller Park Scoreboard Department.

Working Credentials

Write or fax the Brewers Media Relations Department on company letterhead. Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news-gathering agencies. ALL CREDENTIAL REQUESTS MUST BE MADE IN WRITING AT LEAST 24 HOURS IN ADVANCE OF THE GAME OR THEIR FULFILLMENT CANNOT BE ASSURED. CREDENTIALS SHOULD BE DISPLAYED AT ALL TIMES AND WILL BE CHECKED BY STADIUM SECURITY PERSONNEL.

BOB UECKER

Radio Announcer

This season, Bob Uecker, the illustrious "Voice of the Brewers," will broadcast his 32nd year of Major League Baseball for his hometown team. Uecker returns to do play-by-play on WTMJ-Radio and the Brewers Radio Network.

Affectionately known across the country as "Mr. Baseball," Uecker is in his 23rd season as the club's number one announcer. Uecker is enormously well respected in the industry, having been inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame in 2001 where he joins such baseball broadcasting luminaries as Vin Scully, Mel Allen, Red Barber, Ernie Harwell and Jack Brickhouse as well as other American icons such as Bob Hope, Jack Benny, Edward R. Murrow and Orson Welles to name a few.

Uecker has earned the Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year five times during his career and was inducted into the Wisconsin Sports Hall of Fame in 1998.

His big break can be traced to a 1969 visit with Al Hirt, a renowned jazz trumpeter from New Orleans, which would alter Uecker's life forever. Hirt opened a small nightclub in Atlanta and asked him to come on stage prior to that night's headliner, Don Rickles. Uecker displayed a deadpan stare that challenged and broke up the satirical comic. Hirt was so impressed he arranged an appearance for Uecker on the "Tonight Show," starring Johnny Carson. Uecker became one of Carson's favorite guests, making some 100 appearances before the Late Night host retired in 1992.

Uecker became a national celebrity and the ABC Network took advantage of his popularity. He made appearances on the "Superstars" and "The Midnight Special" which opened the door for more elaborate appearances.

A versatile talent, Uecker's credits go far beyond guest appearances and play-by-play. In 1985, Uecker launched a television acting career as one of the stars of ABC's sitcom "Mr. Belvedere," which put 100 episodes into syndication. He also hosted two syndicated television shows, "Bob Uecker's Wacky World of Sports" and "Bob Uecker's War of the Stars." He was one of the Miller Lite All-Stars in popular commercials for Lite Beer from Miller. Uecker was type cast as a radio announcer in the film "Major League" filmed at County Stadium, and stole the show in the sequel, "Major League II."

The snowball continued to roll for Uecker. His experience broadcasting Brewers games both on radio and television gained Uecker national recognition as a play-by-play announcer for ABC Sports coverage of Monday Night Baseball, the League Championship Series and the World Series.

Uecker's accomplishments weren't limited to the electronic medium. A former catcher who spent six seasons in the Majors, Bob authored a book entitled "Catcher In the Wry," a humorous look back on the years he spent with the Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves, St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies. One of his career highlights as a player came in 1964, when he was a member of the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals.

With all his national attention and success, Bob never forgot his roots. He lent his services in support of several local organizations, including the United Performing Arts Fund, the Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer Fund, the Milwaukee Symphony, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee and Big Brothers/Big Sisters. In addition, he's an advocate for such organizations as cystic fibrosis, heart disease and the Wisconsin Department of Tourism. He also chairs the popular Bob Uecker Celebrity Fishing Tournament for Make-A-Wish Foundation.

For his efforts, Uecker was inducted into the Wisconsin Performing Artists Hall of Fame in 1993. The Hall of Fame was established in 1983 to honor nationally and internationally known performing artists with Wisconsin ties. In 1994, he was elected to the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame. In January of 1995, he earned the "Big B.A.T." Award from the Baseball Assistance Team at a dinner in New York City for his continuing support of former Major League stars who are in need of support.

JIM POWELL

Radio Announcer

Jim Powell begins his seventh season as a member of the Brewers broadcast team. A highly regarded presence behind the mic, Powell was named the 1998 Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year and is a three-time recipient of the Sportscaster of the Year in South Carolina having earned the award in 1990-1991 and 1995.

In addition to his duties on the Brewers' radio network, Powell has logged some time as a member of the Brewers' television team calling the action during the 1999 and 2000 seasons.

Keeping with the baseball theme during the winter months, Jim has served as co-host of "Talkin' Brewers," the hot-stove league show heard across the Brewers radio network since 1997. In addition, he fields baseball questions from fans around the world as host of the "Fan Forum" on the Brewers' website.

Powell began his Major League broadcasting career with the Minnesota Twins in a reserve role in 1993 and 1994. Prior to this, he accumulated extensive experience at the Minor League level serving as play-by-play announcer for the Charlotte Knights in 1990-91 and 1995 and the Columbia Mets from 1987-89 and 1993-94.

He has also dabbled at the collegiate level taking on play-by-play duties for the University of South Carolina baseball program in 1989 and 1994 as well as the University of Georgia baseball team in 1985-86.

Powell has received national exposure taking on play-by-play duties for CBS Radio for several college football games including the 1997 Sun Bowl pitting Iowa against Arizona State. He has also moonlighted on Host Communications telecasts calling the action on the gridiron in the South Carolina/Vanderbilt tilt on October 21, 2000. He served as the color analyst for the South Carolina Football and Basketball programs from 1993-95 and hosted the Coach's shows for those two sports on television. Powell also did play-by-play for Davidson College basketball in 1990.

Active contributors in the community, Jim and his wife Emmy currently serve on the Board of Directors for the Child Abuse Prevention (CAP) Fund.

Powell attended the University of Georgia as a National Merit Scholar. He and Emmy have three daughters, Allie, Sabrina and Julia. The Powells reside in Delafield.

KENT SOMMERFELD

Radio Producer

Kent Sommerfeld is in his 17th season as the Producer of Milwaukee Brewers radio broadcasts. A Wisconsin native, he has acquired a wide range of experience during his tenure in the broadcasting field.

Sommerfeld has been the Radio Producer/Director for the Marquette University radio network since 1990 and hosted an interview segment during the team's pre-game programming during the 1995-96 season. He was named Director of the Marquette Basketball Radio Network in 1999 and does play-by-play for the Marquette University Women's basketball broadcasts.

Sommerfeld attended the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater where he earned a degree in communications and broadcast journalism. While at Whitewater, Kent was the sports director of Cable TV 6, a wing of Whitewater's cable system, as well as the co-host of "Sports Chat," a sports talk show on WSUW-Radio.

In addition to his radio accolades, Kent has worked with ESPN's technical staff on several events in the Midwest. He also worked at KRBC-TV, the NBC affiliate in Abilene, Texas as a sports/news photojournalist.

Born in Milwaukee, Sommerfeld attended Brookfield Central High School. He and his wife, -eleni-, have two sons, Peter and Luke, and reside in the Milwaukee area.

BILL SCHROEDER

Television Announcer

Bill Schroeder returns for his eighth season as the color commentator on Brewers telecasts providing his analysis for audiences throughout Wisconsin.

Popular with the fans, Schroeder has evolved into a natural in the booth since his career behind the mic began in 1994. He is familiar with the business of talking baseball, co-hosting "Baseball Sunday" in 1994 and "Talkin' Brewers" on WTMJ-Radio from 1998-2000.

A lifetime .240 hitter, Schroeder spent eight seasons in the big leagues with the Brewers and the California Angels enjoying a career-best .332 batting average in 1987. As an intricate member of Team Streak, Bill caught Juan Nieves' no-hitter on April 15, 1987, in the midst of the Brewers' Major League record-tying 13-0 start. In addition, he clubbed a career-high 14 home runs and had 42 RBI in a back-up role that season. Schroeder provided the highlight to perhaps his finest season in the Majors on June 14, 1987 at Yankees Stadium. Before family and friends, he collected four hits, including a game winning two-run homer, off New York ace Dave Righetti.

A cornerstone in the community since beginning his Major League career, he hosts the annual Bill Schroeder Celebrity Golf Classic in the Milwaukee area to benefit COA Youth and Family Centers, a Milwaukee charity which helps area children. In 1988, he was named the recipient of the Athletes For Youth Good Guy Award, while in 1984, he earned the club's Unsung Hero Award.

Schroeder graduated from West Windsor Plainsboro High School in Princeton, New Jersey, where he earned All-State honors his junior and senior years. He attended Clemson University, leading the Tigers to the Atlantic Coast Conference title in 1978 and 1979.

Born in Baltimore, Maryland and raised in Princeton, Schroeder was traded to the California Angels following the 1988 campaign before retiring in 1990. He has two daughters, Lindsey and Mallory, and a son, Billy, and resides in Waukesha.

DARON SUTTON

Television Announcer

Daron Sutton is in his first year as the television play-by-play announcer for the Milwaukee Brewers but he is no stranger to Milwaukee having spent three years in the city as a teenager.

Named to the position on November 27, 2001, Sutton, 32, brings with him a strong baseball pedigree as his father, Don Sutton, was instrumental in the Brewers push to the World Series in 1982 and is a member of Baseball's Hall of Fame.

He joins the Brewers broadcasting team after spending the 2000 and 2001 seasons as a radio play-by-play announcer for the Anaheim Angels. With the Angels, he not only served as a play-by-play announcer but also hosted both the pre- and post-game shows including a call-in show after the regular post-game show ended.

Sutton has had extensive television broadcasting experience in his young career. As a member of the Atlanta Braves broadcast team on FOX Sports South, he regularly served in a play-by-play capacity, while also hosting "The New Dodge Braves Report", a Braves pre-game show. He also handled Southeastern Conference collegiate athletic telecasts for FOX in men's and women's basketball, swimming and diving, gymnastics, track and field and volleyball.

Sutton began his broadcasting career in 1993 on the CNN Airport Network and then moved to CNN Sports in December of 1994 as an anchor and then onto FOX Sports South in 1997.

A Minor League pitcher, Sutton spent 1992 with the Boise (ID) Hawks, a Class A affiliate of the Angels, and part of 1993 in the Atlanta Braves organization.

Sutton graduated from Auburn University-Montgomery in 1992 with a degree in Mass Communications. He and his wife, Kristin, have two daughters, Abbey and Lilly.

The Suttons reside in Mequon, Wisconsin.

LEN KASPER

Television and Radio Announcer

Kasper, 31, brings over a decade of sports broadcasting experience to the Brewers. He is the morning sports anchor at WTMJ Radio, the Brewers flagship, and hosts "Packers GameDay," the Green Bay Packers Radio Network pre-game and halftime show, during the NFL season. Kasper has also represented the Brewers on the club's Wisconsin winter tour and has emceed various club events.

Kasper was chosen as one of Milwaukee's 40 Under 40 in 1996 by The Business Journal, which highlights those under the age of 40 who are deemed "Milwaukee's next generation of business and community leaders."

A Shepherd, Michigan native, he graduated summa cum laude from Marquette University in 1993. Kasper and his wife, Pam, and son, Leo, live in Fox Point, Wisconsin

Milwaukee BrewersRADIO NETWORK

Forty-one markets throughout Wisconsin and Michigan will carry Milwaukee Brewers Baseball in 2002. Once again, WTMJ Radio 620 (AM), in Milwaukee, will be the Brewers flagship station. Considered the sports broadcasting leader in Wisconsin, WTMJ Radio is also the flagship station for the Milwaukee Bucks of the National Basketball Association and the Green Bay Packers of the National Football League. All 162 regular season games and any post-season games the Brewers may play this year will be carried, as well as 18 spring training games.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD, PRESENTED BY JOHN HANCOCK

Since 1970, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award (originally known as "The Commissioner's Award") which recognizes the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team. The award, now sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

In 1972, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was renamed to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer, was killed in a plane crash New Years Eve, 1972, delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua.

Early in the season, each team will be asked to submit three candidates to a panel formed by John Hancock Financial Services. The panel will select a nominee from each club. A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, will then select a winner from the list of 30 nominees. The winner of the Roberto Clemente Award will receive a $25,000 donation from John Hancock Financial Services for the local charity of his choice at an on-field ceremony during the World Series. John Hancock will also make a cash contribution to the Roberto Clemente Foundation and to each nominee's local charity.

Past winners include Curt Schilling (2001), Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Sammy Sosa, Willie Mays, Lou Brock, Ozzie Smith, Cal Ripken, Jr., Kirby Puckett and others.

John Hancock is a proud sponsor of Major League Baseball and the title sponsor of The John Hancock All-Star FanFest, an interactive "Baseball Heaven on Earth" held in conjunction with MLB's All-Star Game.

Milwaukee BrewersGOLD CLUB

The Milwaukee Brewers Gold Club is the volunteer sales force designed to assist the Milwaukee Brewers with their season ticket sales efforts. The club acts as an external extension of the Brewers integral sales force. The Gold Club consists of civic-minded individuals from throughout the Greater Milwaukee area.

In addition to helping the Brewers sell season tickets, the Gold Club is instrumental in drawing the Milwaukee Brewers and the business community into a closer relationship. Gold Club members serve as ambassadors for the ball club in promoting the many benefits Major League Baseball brings to Milwaukee and the state of Wisconsin. The Gold Club is valued for its contribution to the Brewers organization in the long term success and stability of the franchise.

Headed by the Brewers' Jim Bathey, and assisted by Irene Bolton, the Gold Club was created in February of 1992. The group is patterned after other clubs who have had successful private sales forces such as the Royal Lancers in Kansas City (created in 1969) and the Designated Hitters in Baltimore (1979).

BASEBALL FOR WISCONSIN
Corporate Partnership Program

The Baseball for Wisconsin Corporate Partnership Program was established in 1995 in conjunction with the MMAC and the Greater Milwaukee business community, to assist the Milwaukee Brewers in selling season tickets. It is a unique sales program to both the Brewers and Major League Baseball.

Baseball for Wisconsin is an employee benefit sales program. To implement the program, the Brewers team up with companies on a mutually agreeable subsidy. This in turn permits the Brewers to sell season ticket packages to employees within the particular company through a special internal ticket sales program. The company subsidy is used in order to offset the total cost of the various ticket packages to employees. The Brewers are able to sell more ticket packages because of the minimal cost to company employees, and the company is recognized as a corporate sponsor of the Brewers as well as receiving other mutually agreeable benefits. Upon company approval, the Milwaukee Brewers will run all aspects of the program while the employee benefits are reflected as coming solely from the participating company.

By taking advantage of this program, company employees can secure preferential seating in Miller Park and can enjoy all of the benefits of being a season ticket holder at a considerable discount.

Interested companies who would like to participate in the program or need further information are encouraged to contact the Brewers sales office at 414-902-4100.

MARYVALE BASEBALL PARK

The Brewers return to beautiful Maryvale Baseball Park for their fifth Spring Training in 2002. Considered to be one of the premiere spring complexes, the Brewers are in the midst of a 15-year lease through 2012 which has helped to revitalize the Maryvale neighborhood.

The facility, opened in 1998, includes 7,000 permanent seats as well as 1,000 lawn seats. The complex features eight fields, including two half fields. The Brewers Minor League players also train at the Maryvale complex across the street from the Major League facility.

John F. Long, a longtime Valley developer, donated 56 acres of land to make this beautiful complex a reality. With Maricopa County, the Maryvale County Stadium District and the city of Phoenix providing resources, Maryvale is the foundation for future neighborhood development. Overseeing the operations of the Maryvale Baseball Park is the Phoenix Parks and Recreation Department.

The primary architect on the ballpark was Ellerbe Beckett of Phoenix, Arizona. Their work at Maryvale garnered several awards in 1998 including the Architecture Accessiblilty Award from the Mayor's Commission on Disability Issues, the Citation Award from the Arizona Chapter of the American Institute of Architects and the Merit Award from the Western Mountain Region of the American Institute of Architects.
